

TEXAS PTAC CONFERENCE 2012 2-3 August 2012

The purpose of the Texas PTAC Conference 2012 is to provide an opportunity to meet with various State agencies along with the staff of the PTACs located in Texas and the bordering states to discuss pertinent issues as they relate to small businesses. In addition, to educate the State agencies as to how PTACs can assist them in their respective procurement endeavors, and to let these agencies educate Texas PTACs where we can better support them.

This event is sponsored by the Angelina College Procurement Assistance Center (ACPAC), which is located in Lufkin, Texas. You can visit our website at www.acpactx.org to find out more about our center and the services we provide.
